MILTONVILLE CEMETERY
Miltonville, Butler County, Ohio

Miltonville Cemetery adjoins the village of Miltonville (north of Trenton, Ohio), located on Howe Road and deeded away by Samuel Mattix and wife for cemetery purposes, has been occupied for the interment of the dead for more than 100 years. The tract contains one acre or more of land and has always been free for burial purposes. A small tract of ground adjoins the U.B. Church and the church building stands upon the north half of this tract of land and the south half has been laid off for burial lots. (The Church Building has since burned down and never rebuilt; the older records of the cemetery were burned also.) One acre was donated for cemetery purposes by Peter Thomas, and two acres and a fraction of an acre of ground lying immediately west of the tract donated by Peter Thomas. The Miltonville Cemetery Association was adopted May 20, 1882.
